

In conjunction with the 28th International Cartographic Conference, held in Washington DC on July 2-7, 2017 (<http://icc2017.org/>), the Library of Congress' Geography & Map Division and the three ICA Commissions on Atlases, History of Cartography, and Toponymy cordially invite

Papers and Attendance

for their

JOINT PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOP

at the Library of Congress, Madison Building (opposite the U.S. Congress), on June 28-30, 2017.

CALL FOR PAPERS

is now open and submissions of abstracts on any topic of merit addressing at least one of the subjects of the partnering ICA Commissions are now invited:

Deadline for submissions: February 15, 2017

Notification of acceptance: March 15, 2017

Guidance on Abstracts: Min. 200 words, max. 500 words, in English language
Add a brief biographical note
One paper proposal only, either as sole author or co-author
Each paper has to be an unpublished original contribution
Indication of interest to publish in a conference volume

All abstract submissions must be sent electronically via the online submission system on the workshop website.

A workshop website with submission function and additional content growing over time on the Website of the ICA Commission on the History of Cartography

<http://history.icaci.org/>

will be available from November 30, 2016.

Until the Workshop Website is functional all inquiries should be directed to:

Chair of the ICA Commission on the History of Cartography
Prof. Dr. Imre Josef Demhardt
E-Mail: demhardt@uta.edu